Small Royalty Owners Get Some Relief

Washington — Conferees from the House and Senate on Friday approved logisintion co-authors by Seesax Lloyd Bontsen that will provide reld to small royally owners hit hardby its so called "windfell profit" tax.

Hentson, who last summer preside over a hearing in Austin attended h 3,500 Texas royalty nuners protestly the tax, said "I'm optimistic that wer cleared the last higherdis to encount of this importent legislation."

The Bentson bill ameeds the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act to permi revalty owners, when they lie their 1980 income tax returns, to apply for 1 "windfall profit" tax refund for cress of up to $1,000.

The provision was included in the Sanate version of the Budget Reco-cillation bill but was not in the House can be a supported by the measure. House can be supported by the measure. version of the measure. House coforces on that bill agreed to scept in "windfall" tax round provision friday afternoon, chartly before the content sitornoon, shortly before the consider completed work in the bill.

The legislation dow goes back to be linuace of Congress for finel approal before boing sent to the White House. The Prosident is expected to sign the measure, since Secretary of Exergi Charles Duncan, et a joint press confirence with Senator Beatson is linuation several wooks ago, assessed administration support for it.

Packer-buyer survey finds unanimous acceptance of Simmental crossbreds!

Miller Research Service, an Independent agricultural research firm, interviewed meatpacker-buyers tn Texas, Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota.*

The results were unanimous. Buyers described Simmental crossbreds and similar large feeder cattle as "the only way to go," 'supertor slaughter animals," "bigger ribeyes, less waste fat, and the same good marbling."

Packers prefer Simmental crossbreds. Shouldn't you?

You need. We heed

If you need a mama cow that'll wean a heavy calf, breed back every year for more years than most, then you need BEEFMASTER.

If you need a bull that'll throw an easy calving calf, that'll wean of more pounds per day of age, then you need BEEFMASTER.
